

STATE OF WASHINGTON
SPOKANE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

LEVI KARKIAINEN,

Plaintiff,

v.

CENTRAL PORTFOLIO CONTROL, INC.,
a Minnesota Corporation and Collection Agency,

Defendant.

NO.

PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AND DAMAGES FOR VIOLATIONS OF
THE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT
AND THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING
ACT

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, LEVI KARKIAINEN, by and through his counsel, ROBERT
MITCHELL, and complains against the Defendant as follows:

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1.1 Plaintiff is an Honorable, Disabled Army Veteran.

1.2 Defendant is a collection agency that specializes in collecting doubtful medical debts that were never owed, paid by insurance, partially paid, or qualified for Charity Care.

1.3 These medical debts are assigned by unreliable medical providers to an unreliable servicing company.

1.4 The servicing company then assigns the unreliable accounts to Defendant for collections and often times, credit reporting.

1.5 Medical bills ruin too many Americans' financial lives. According to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, nearly one in five credit reports contain one or more medical debt collection tradelines.<sup>1</sup> Even relatively small medical bills can have devastating consequences for consumers who often have difficulty tracking down who they allegedly owe for what medical care, especially after the bills are assigned to a collection agency.

1.6 In 2019, the Washington State Legislature responded to the growing crisis caused by aggressive collection of medical debts with a series of reforms. Among other things, a collection agency collecting hospital debt must advise consumers of their potential eligibility for financial assistance, known as charity care, in their initial letters seeking to collect on alleged debts for hospital care. RCW 19.16.250(29).

1.7 On April 29, 2019, St. Joseph entered a multimillion-dollar Consent Decree with the Washington State Attorney General, to resolve State of Washington v. Franciscan Health System d/b/a Chi-Franciscan Health d/b/a St. Joseph Medical Center, Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 17-2-10901-2. See EX. A.

1.8 The Consent Decree resolved $25 million of St. Joseph medical accounts incurred between January 1, 2012 and July 1, 2017. Id. at p. 10.

1.9 Surprise Medical Bills are so pervasive that Congress was forced to include protections against surprise medical billing in the OMNIBUS SPENDING ACT in 2020. See H.R. 133, Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, 116th Congress (2019-2020).

<sup>1</sup> CFPB, Consumer credit reports: A study of medical and non-medical collections at 4 (Dec. 2014), available at https://files.consumerfinance.gov/f/201412\_cfpb\_reports\_consumer-credit-medical-and-non-medical-collections.pdf

1.10 The largest Physicians Group in the nation is currently the subject of a class action lawsuit involving surprise medical debts and balance billing, claims eerily similar to this case. See Sia Fraser et al. v. Team Health Holdings, Inc., U.S. Dist. Court for the Northern District of California, Civil Cause No. 3:20-cv-04600.

1.11 At least one local hospital group was sued for similar conduct. See Fangsrud von Esch v. Legacy Salmon Creek and Asset Systems, Inc., U.S. Dist. Court for the W.D. Wash., Civil Cause No. 16-cv-5842-BHS. (This case resulted in the voluntary discharge of 2,500 suspected balance billing accounts, likely to the tune of seven or eight figures).

1.12 Balance billing and surprise medical debts are a common complaint in the United States. See "The Nonprofit Hospital That Makes Millions, Owns a Collection Agency and Relentlessly Sues the Poor" Pro Publica article at <https://www.propublica.org/article/methodist-le-bonheur-healthcare-sues-poor-medical-debt>

1.13 Defendant is currently collecting and credit reporting a portfolio of surprise medical debts that are the result of balance billing.

1.14 Many of the accounts Defendant seeks to collect were paid, partially paid, or should have been discharged through health insurance or Charity Care.

1.15 In this case, Defendant is harassing Plaintiff (a seriously disabled veteran) in an attempt to force Plaintiff to pay a medical debt he simply does not owe.

1.16 Plaintiff has suffered injury and damages as a result of Defendant's unfair and deceptive business practices.

II. PARTIES

2.1 Plaintiff, LEVI KARKIAINEN is a resident of Spokane County, Washington.

2.2 Plaintiff obtained medical services from St. Clare Hospital (a Chi Franciscan entity), which he used primarily for personal, family, and household purposes.

2.3 Defendant alleges that Plaintiff defaulted on the account by failing to make timely payments.

2.4 Plaintiff is therefore a "consumer" as defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692(a)(3) (the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act) and a "debtor" as defined by RCW 19.16.100(8) (Washington's Collection Agency Act), and a "person" as defined by RCW 19.86.010(1) (Washington's Consumer Protection Act), and Plaintiff acted as a "consumer" "debtor" and "person" at all times relevant to this litigation.

2.5 Defendant, CENTRAL PORTFOLIO CONTROL, INC., a Minnesota Corporation, (hereinafter "Central" or "Defendant"), is a collection agency and a business which regularly collects defaulted accounts originally owed to others.

2.6 The principal purpose of Defendant's business is the collection of third-party debts originally owed to others.

2.7 Defendant is a licensed collection agency and conducts business in Washington State under UBI No. 602 222 599.

2.8 Defendant is therefore a "collection agency" as defined by the WCAA, a "person" as defined by the CPA, a "debt collector" as defined by the FDCPA, and Defendant acted as such at all times relevant to this complaint.

2.9 Defendant made attempts to collect the debts at the heart of this lawsuit.

1        4.5     Plaintiff received medical services from St. Clare Hospital just a few months

3        4.6     The medical services Plaintiff received were directly related to Plaintiff's
4 service-connected disability.

5        4.7     When the Department of Veterans Affairs refused to pay for the emergency
6 medical services, Plaintiff completed a Charity Care Application.

7        4.8     On September 25, 2019, St. Clare Hospital reviewed Plaintiff's consumer credit
8 report to evaluate his Charity Care Application.

9        4.9     St. Clare Hospital either granted, or never responded to Plaintiff's Charity Care
10 Application.

11        4.10    Defendant is now attempting to collect the Charity Care Account from Plaintiff.

12        4.11    On April 21, 2021, at 8:08 A.M., Defendant sent a text message to Plaintiff's

19 to collect a debt.

20        4.14    Defendant's text message did not state that any information obtained would be

3 4.16 Defendant's text message used a false name: "CPC."

4 4.17 Defendant's text message did not contain a statement informing Plaintiff of his

1 4.19 Defendant's text message did not include a notice that Plaintiff may be eligible
2 for charity care from the hospital, together with the contact information for the hospital.

3 4.20 Defendant attempted to collect the medical claim related to hospital debt during 4 the pendency of an application for charity care sponsorship or an appeal from a final 5 determination of charity care sponsorship status.

6 4.21 Defendant attempted to collect a debt Plaintiff does not owe.

7 4.22 Plaintiff telephoned the number listed in Defendant's text message.

8 4.23 Defendant informed Plaintiff that the communications were related to the old
9 medical account.

10 4.24 Defendant never informed Plaintiff that he was entitled to apply for Charity
11 Care.

12 4.25 Plaintiff telephoned St. Clare Hospital and spoke with the billing department.

13 4.26 St. Clare Hospital informed Plaintiff that he qualified for Charity Care, but 14 there was some information missing from his file, so St. Clare Hospital sent the debt to 15 collections.

16 4.27 Defendant is attempting to force Plaintiff to pay an account that is currently 17 being processed for Charity Care.

18 4.28 Defendant's acts and practices against this honorable disabled veteran were 19 unfair, deceptive, and outrageous.

20 4.29 Defendant's unfair, deceptive, and outrageous acts and practices against this
21 honorable disabled veteran occurred in the course of trade and commerce.

1           4.30 Defendant's unfair, deceptive, and outrageous acts and practices against this
2 honorable disabled veteran involve matters of public interest (business, credit reporting, debt
3 collection, inter alia).

4           4.31 Defendant's unfair, deceptive, and outrageous acts and practices against this
5 honorable disabled veteran have the capacity for repetition.

6           4.32 Plaintiff was injured and damaged in his person and property by Defendant's
7 unfair, deceptive and outrageous acts and practices.

8           4.33 Defendant's unfair, deceptive and outrageous acts and practices were a direct
9 and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

10           4.34 Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices were intentional, willful,
11 wanton, unfair, unconscionable, outrageous, and completely unacceptable in a civilized
12 society.

13           4.35 Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices illustrate why an injunction

15           V. FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT VIOLATION

16                           (Application of the Statute)

17           5.1 Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs I. through IV., inclusive as though fully set forth 18 herein.

19           5.2 Pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (hereinafter "FDCPA"), a 20 "consumer" or "debtor" means "any natural person obligated or allegedly obligated to pay any

5.3 Pursuant to the FDCPA, the term "debt" means: "any obligation or alleged obligation of a consumer to pay money arising out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance, or services which are the subject of the transaction are primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, whether or not such obligation has been reduced to judgment." 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).

5.4 Pursuant to the FDCPA, the term "debt collector" means: "any person who uses any instrumentality of interstate commerce or the mails in any business the principal purpose of which is the collection of any debts, or who regularly collects or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another." 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

5.5 Defendant is a "debt collector" as defined by the FDCPA, and Defendant attempted to collect a consumer debt from Plaintiff.

5.6 The FDCPA applies in this case because the Plaintiff is a "debtor," the debt at the heart of this case is a "consumer debt," which arose from a transaction in which the services are primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and the Defendant is a "debt collector" which attempted to collect a debt originally owed to a third party.

VI. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12 expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law." 15 U.S.C. §
13 1692f(1).

15 6.3 Additionally, the FDCPA requires:

16 Within five days after the initial communication with a consumer 17 in connection with the collection of any debt, a debt collector shall,
18 unless the following information is contained in the initial 19 communication or the consumer has paid the debt, send the 20 consumer a written notice containing – 1) the amount of the 21 debt;...3) a statement that unless the consumer, within thirty days
22 after receipt of the notice, disputes the validity of the debt, or any 23 portion thereof, the debt will be assumed to be valid by the debt
24 collector; 4) a statement that if the consumer notifies the debt
25 collector in writing within the thirty-day period that the debt, or 26 any portion thereof, is disputed, the debt collector will obtain verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment against the consumer and a copy of such verification or judgment will be mailed to the consumer by the debt collector; and....

15 U.S.C. §1692g(1)(2) and (4).

6.4 In this case, Defendant violated the above-referenced statutory provisions by attempting to force an honorable disabled veteran to pay a $6,000.00 medical debt that he simply does not owe, and which is currently pending a Charity Care Application.

1           6.5 Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff with notices required by state and federal 2 law.

3           6.6 Defendant also used a false name.

4           6.7 Defendant's actions were unfair, deceptive, oppressive, outrageous, willful,
5 wanton, unfair, and unconscionable and intentionally designed to injure and damage Plaintiff.

6           6.8 Defendant's unfair, deceptive, oppressive, outrageous, intentional, willful,

8 Plaintiff.

9           6.9 Defendant's unfair, deceptive, oppressive, outrageous, intentional, willful,
10 wanton, unfair, unconscionable and intentional acts and practices were a direct and proximate

12           6.10 Defendant's unfair, deceptive, oppressive, outrageous, intentional, willful,

15                               VII. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

16                               (Per Se Consumer Protection Act – State Collection Agency Act Violation)

17           7.1 Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs I. through VI., inclusive as though fully set forth

19           7.2 Washington's Consumer Protection Act (hereinafter "CPA") states: "Unfair
20 methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or 21 commerce are hereby declared unlawful." RCW 19.86.020.

22           7.3 The CPA applies to the actions at issue herein because the Plaintiff is a "person"

6 7.5 The WCAA states that violations of the WCAA are per se CPA violations RCW

8 7.6 The "Prohibited Practices" section of the WCAA states in pertinent part that prohibition is only applicable if the licensee has received notice of the pendency of the application or appeal.

7.10 In this case, Defendant violated both the Washington Collection Agency Act and the Washington Consumer Protection Act (per se violation), by attempting to collect an amount that was not owed, and by failing to provide Plaintiff with the above-referenced notifications, where Defendant's communication simply stated: "LEVI, We have an important message for you from CPC. This communication is from a licensed bill collector. Please call us at 888-846-6092."

7.11 Plaintiff was injured and damaged by Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices.

7.12 Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices are a direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries.

7.13 Defendant's unfair acts and practices were intentional, willful, wanton, unfair, unconscionable, and outrageous.

7.14 Defendant's unfair acts and practices illustrate why an injunction is necessary to protect Plaintiff and other Washington debtors from similar harm.

VIII. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Consumer Protection Act Violation – In the Alternative)

8.1 Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs I. through VII., inclusive as though fully set forth herein.

8.2 In the alternative to a per se violation of Washington's CPA as alleged Supra, Defendant's collection actions are still "unfair" and "deceptive" as those terms are ambiguously defined and liberally construed to protect consumers. RCW 19.86.920.

8.4 Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices affect a matter of public interest; business and debt collection.

8.5 Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices have the capacity for repetition.

8.6 Plaintiff was injured and damaged by Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices.

8.7 Defendant's unfair and deceptive acts and practices are a direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries.

IX. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Outrage)

9.1 Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs I. through VIII., inclusive as though fully set forth herein.

9.2 The elements of the tort of outrage are "(1) extreme and outrageous conduct, (2) intentional or reckless infliction of emotional distress, and (3) severe emotional distress on the part of plaintiff." Rice v. Janovich, 109 Wn.2d 48, 61 (1987).

9.3 Washington adopted the tort of outrage and the theory of Restatement (Second) of Torts. Jackson v. Peoples Fed. Credit Union, 25 Wash.App. 81, 84, 604 P.2d 1025, 1027 (1979).

1 a debt. See Jackson at 85 and 1025; Lucero v. Cenlar FSB, W.D. Wash. Cause No. C13-0602-
 2 RSL, Doc. # 255, denying Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment on Plaintiff's Claim of 3 Outrage); and Vawter v. Quality Loan Serv. Corp. of Washington, 707 F.Supp.2d 1115, 1128
 4 (W.D. Wash. 2010).

5 9.5 In this case, based on the lawsuits, legislation, and news, Defendant must be 6 aware that medical billing is fraught with problems, particularly those medical debts related to 7 Chi Franciscan entities in the Tacoma, Washington area. Defendant knows that many medical 8 bills were never owed, were paid, partially paid, subject to Medicaid/Medicare laws, or were 9 eligible for charity care discharge. Knowing this, Defendant developed a business model of 10 blindly relying on unreliable sources to force payment of medical debts about which Defendant
 11 knows that most of these medical accounts are unenforceable, and some of them actually 12 violate federal and state law. Any reasonable juror would find Defendant's entire business
 13 model extreme, outrageous, utterly unacceptable in a civilized society, intentional and reckless,
 14 and specifically designed to inflict severe emotional distress upon innocent consumers in 15 attempt to extort payment of erroneous debts that are simply do not owe. A jury would be 16 disgusted by this business model and would gladly pay Plaintiff emotional distress damages for 17 falling victim to these borderline criminal practices. As the Honorable Judge Lasnik stated in 18 Lucero v. Cenlar FSB, "...the factfinder could easily find for plaintiff..." Lucero v. Cenlar
 19 FSB at p. 14.

20 9.6 Defendant's actions were intentional, willful, wanton, unfair, deceptive,
 21 unconscionable, extreme, outrageous, and unreasonable.

22 9.7 Defendant's intentional, willful, wanton, unfair, deceptive, unconscionable,
 23 extreme, outrageous, and unreasonable actions shock the conscience.

9.8 Plaintiff was injured and damaged emotionally by Defendant's intentional, willful, wanton, unfair, deceptive, unconscionable, extreme, outrageous, and unreasonable actions.

9.10 Defendant's intentional, willful, wanton, unfair, deceptive, unconscionable, extreme, outrageous, and unreasonable actions were a direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

9.11 Defendant's intentional, willful, wanton, unfair, deceptive, unconscionable, extreme, outrageous, and unreasonable actions illustrate why an injunction is necessary to protect Plaintiff and other Washington consumers from similar harm.

3.4.2.5 Defendant's patient financial counselors shall make reasonable efforts to contact a patient who requests information about financial assistance or expresses an inability to pay no later than five (5) business days after the patient's date of service. Such contact will be in-person if the patient remains in the hospital, or by phone before admission (for pre-scheduled patients), or after discharge for patients who the financial counselor is unable to meet with while they are present at the hospital. If Defendant is unable to reach the patient in person or by phone, Defendant will contact the patient by mail at the address it has on file, and request that the patient call Defendants' patient financial counselors to discuss possible financial assistance.

3.4.2.6 Defendant's patient financial counselors shall ask patients if they need translation or interpretation services to assist them in applying for third-party coverage or financial assistance. If the patient's medical condition or other factors indicate that the patient will require more time to secure and present documentation to Defendant for Defendant to make a final determination of eligibility for financial assistance, Defendant will extend this time period as reasonably necessary.

3.4.2.10 If a patient or responsible party submits a complete charity care application, Defendant shall refrain from engaging in billing or collection activity directed towards the patient or the responsible party until the time the patient's charity care application is processed.

Good news - you no longer owe a debt!

Dear Patient:

The Attorney General's Office protects all Washingtonians from unfair and deceptive business practices. My team and I work hard to hold businesses accountable and obtain justice for Washingtonians when businesses don't play by the rules.

My office filed a lawsuit against St. Joseph Medical Center alleging that it failed to make financial assistance accessible to low-income patients from 2012 to 2017. My office and St. Joseph Medical Center's parent company, CHI Franciscan, recently entered into an agreement to settle this lawsuit. A copy of the settlement is available here: [insert link to Consent Decree].

As part of the settlement, CHI Franciscan can no longer collect on certain accounts owed to it by thousands of charity care eligible patients treated at its Washington hospitals. You are a member of this group.

As a result, you no longer owe [amount discharged] on [account number(s)] to [insert hospital name(s)].

If you have questions about this letter or CHI Franciscan's charity care program please contact (888) 779-6380.

ACT NOW! You may be eligible for a refund or forgiveness of medical debt.

Dear Patient:

The Attorney General's Office protects all Washingtonians from unfair and deceptive business practices. My team and I work hard to hold businesses accountable and obtain justice for Washingtonians when businesses don't play by the rules.

My office filed a lawsuit against St. Joseph Medical Center alleging that it failed to make financial assistance accessible to low-income patients from 2012 to 2017. My office and St. Joseph Medical Center's parent company, CHI Franciscan, recently entered into an agreement to settle this lawsuit. A copy of the settlement is available here: [insert link to Consent Decree].

This settlement allows patients who were qualified financial assistance to receive a refund or forgiveness of debt for care provided to them from 2012-2017 at the following hospitals: St. Joseph Medical Center, St. Elizabeth Hospital, St. Francis Hospital, Highline Medical Center, Harrison Medical Center, St. Anthony Hospital, and St. Clare Hospital.

Here is what you need to do to see if you are eligible for a refund or debt forgiveness:

- Consult the enclosed chart to see if your family income at the time you received treatment qualifies you for financial assistance; and
- If so, please return the enclosed form to be considered for financial assistance.

We are working hard to make sure every eligible patient receives a refund and debt forgiveness, but we need you to act now!

If approved for financial assistance, you will receive a refund of what you paid to CHI Franciscan hospitals. You will also be notified of any amount you no longer owe to CHI Franciscan hospitals.

If you have questions about this letter or CHI Franciscan's charity care program please contact (888) 779-6380.

Sincerely,

BOB FERGUSON
Attorney General
